Western Historical Quarterly

Founded in 1969, the official journal of the Western History Association presents original articles dealing with the North American West--the Westward movement from the Atlantic to the Pacific, twentieth-century regional studies, the Spanish borderlands, and developments in western Canada, northern Mexico, Alaska, and Hawai'i. Each issue contains book reviews, book notices, and listings of recent articles. A list of dissertations significant to the field of western history is published annually.

One volume per reel.

Volumes 1 - 25 (1970-1994)

1 - 4 reels = $25 per reel
5 or more reels = $20 per reel
